Foreword

E of the staff hope that in turning the pages of the 1958 PINE BURR after your departure from Campbell, you will smile, or perhaps chuckle, as you are reminded of the many pleasant experiences that you had in classes, clubs, sports, religious activities, and dramatic or musical programs while you were here. The staff has burned much midnight oil to give you this souvenir of your life at Campbell.

May this twenty-third edition remind you of the good fellowship and co-operation of our students and our faculty. May Campbell's moral standards and ideals continue to be yours, and may we all continue bound to her and to each other by her golden chain of Christian friendliness and good will.

Dedication

*"Breathes there a man with soul so dead
Who never to himself hath said,
This is my own, my native land!"*

—SCOTT

N the name of the student body and faculty, PINE BURR salutes this enthusiastic interpreter of the dreams, decisions, and deeds of our America. A sympathetic and effective teacher, he replenishes his store of ideas by ever pursuing the role of a student. His long experience in the field of education has equipped him as a philosopher who views the future of his native North Carolina and the South with optimism.

He is a loyal supporter of all college and church activities. A devoted husband and father, he evidences a constant concern for the welfare of his kinfolk. His interests extend from the classroom to the garden, the woods, the coastal waters.

Because of his friendly helpfulness and faithful dedication to our common task, PINE BURR counts it a privilege to honor Professor G. A. Tripp. May his service to Campbell College long continue!

ROBERT POWELL HOLDING, B.A., LL.B., LL.D.
1896 - 1957

MASTER builder whose vision and genius led to the molding in thirty-two hamlets and towns in eastern North Carolina the State's second largest banking system.

A civic leader and champion of the cause of public and private schools, distinguished for his long service as trustee of Wake Forest College, his alma mater, and more recently for his dynamic leadership as member of the Board of Trustees of Campbell College.

An honored father, who with his devoted wife, still living, shared the joy of giving to society three fine sons, Robert, Lewis, and Frank, now jointly dedicated to the perpetuation and fulfillment of his life's dreams.

Above all, an humble servant of God and his fellowman, who quietly without ostentation went about doing good.

PRESIDENT LESLIE H. CAMPBELL

CONTINUING in the footsteps of his founder father, President Leslie H. Campbell has devoted his life to helping young people prepare for better tomorrows.

A man of great strength, he stands firm under the many burdens that he carries for his associates and for the students who come to him for help. His load is lightened by his rich sense of humor and by his warm love for human beings. A man of broad interests, he is equally at home applauding a symphony, swinging a 9-iron, or cheering the Camels to another basketball championship.

We of the class of 1958 will remember him as the man who of all living men most nearly embodies the traditions and Christian ideals of Campbell College.

DEAN A. R. BURKOT

ERVING on both the faculty and the administration is a man whom everyone from the newest freshman to the President admires, Dean A. R. Burkot. Dean Burkot's two decades of service have been an invaluable contribution to the progress of Campbell College.

Although the Dean's often noted ability to remember names and faces is a natural gift, it is a gift brought to perfection by his keen interest in people. A respecter of his fellowman, he is never too busy to help a student solve any problem.

We shall always remember this versatile counselor and administrator as a loyal supporter of the church, as a man devoted to his family, and as a beloved teacher and friend.

Under the direction of Charles Horton, the Campbell College Choir of eighty voices presented a Christmas concert, and in the spring the choir provided the music for Kurt Weill's outdoor folk-drama, "Down In The Valley." According to tradition, the choir gave the "Concert Under the Stars" at the end of the year.

Campbell College Touring Choir

Forty voices from the larger choir were selected as the Touring Choir. Each Sunday night during February, March and April, this choir performed in various towns in North Carolina, including Raleigh, Mt. Olive, Rose Hill, Angier, Rocky Mount, Sanford, Durham, and Zebulon. The highlight of the year came in March when the choir toured as far north as New York City, giving concerts in Virginia, Maryland, New Jersey, and at Westminster Choir College in Princeton, New Jersey.

The Mozart Music Club gives all music students at Campbell College an opportunity to perform publicly. This club is composed of all students who study privately either organ, piano, voice, or violin.

As a student progresses through college he becomes more aware of a peculiar feeling within, which tends to make him more concerned with his college's "ups and downs." This feeling, like a pain, cannot be seen, but it certainly can be felt.

This year was a prosperous one for the boys' basketball team as they experienced a good season both in victories and good sportsman-like ability. They won the North Carolina Junior Conference Tournament for the fourth time in five years.

We give credit to our girls' team also for the fine spirit that they portrayed on the court even though there were not many victories to their credit.

Our cheerleaders deserve a great deal of credit for the spirit in which they kept us going. They seemed to be doing their best at all times, not just when Campbell was winning.

At the close of the spring season, we will witness the baseball team in another expedition of the national sport. Last season the team battled a good season, even though the first place was not in their range.

Thanks

O the annual staff for their loyalty and co-operation in compiling the 1958 PINE BURR, I express my appreciation for a job well done. I am grateful to Kathryn Rowland for her exceptional feature section, to Cliff Towe for his original abstractions, and to Billy Buffaloe for his eminently good pictures. To Jackie Hubbard and Anne Rumbley, who have been faithful typists, to Larry and Jerry Prescott, our twin sports editors, who have made that particular section doubly good, and to Richard Heck and Joe Earnshaw, who, with the help of the advertising staff, have financed this edition by the soliciting of advertisements, I give my thanks.

On behalf of the entire staff, I especially thank Mr. King for being a wonderful adviser. His supply of ideas never seemed to be depleted; he was tireless in his efforts in behalf of the annual; at all times he gave to the staff the fullest measure of co-operation.

To our supporters, the advertisers, I also extend my appreciation. Without you, the publication of this volume would have been impossible. I am indebted to Mr. Haynes of Raleigh for the individual pictures and to Edwards & Broughton Company for printing the PINE BURR.

My thanks go also to the administration, faculty, and students who have supported us.

I have enjoyed working with each of you, and may the best of everything be yours in the future.

One to grow on . . .

Good health is our business. We take a deep personal pride in watching the growth and development of youngsters raised on Pine State's good, health-giving milk and dairy foods. We feel great satisfaction in the knowledge that we contribute to the growth of the community as we do to the growth of its citizens. We're proud of the fact that we're growing, too . . . that more and more families are asking for Pine State's pure, delicious milk, ice cream and other fine dairy foods.
